Avon Liquidation Trust

Process for Depositing Filing Fees with Delaware Claims Processing Facility, LLC (DCPF)

Avon Liquidation Trust (Avon Trust) will require a $500 fee for each claim filed with the Trust. The fee shall be collected by the DCPF and used to fund the firm's filing fee account, which will be maintained at The Huntington National Bank. Fees will be deducted from the firm's filing fee account as claims are submitted. Funds will be reimbursed to the firm's filing fee account at the time the claim is paid. The firm can also request a refund of the available balance funds in their filing fee account at any time.

Filing Fee Deposits shall be sent to the DCPF account at Huntington Bank via wire transfer or ACH Credit following the instructions below. To assure that the funds will be credited to the proper firm within the Trust Online system, with every wire/ACH sent, an email with the firm's name, as it appears on the Electronic Filing Agreement, and the amount of the deposit must be sent to:

talcfilingfee@delcpf.com

Please allow 4 business days for the deposit to be credited to the Trust Online account.
